Embrace The
New Things

14 For the love of Christ controls us,
having concluded this, that one died
for all, therefore all died;

2 Corinthians 5:14–18

15 and He died for all, so that they who live might no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died and rose again on their behalf.

16 Therefore from now on we recognize no one according to the flesh; even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now
we know Him in this way no longer.

17 Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come.

Embracing New Things means letting go of old things

26 For you are all sons of God
through faith in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:26–29

27 For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Greek,
there is neither slave nor free man,
there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendants, heirs according to promise.
