

It's really not that complicated

¹²For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the first principles of the oracles of God; and you have come to need milk and not solid food.

Hebrews 5:12

²⁵ At that time Jesus answered and said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes.

Matthew 11:25–30

²⁶Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight.

Matthew 11:25–30

²⁷ All things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father. Nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him.

Matthew 11:25–30

²⁸Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:25–30

²⁹ Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Matthew 11:25–30

³⁰For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.”

Matthew 11:25–30

Simple Faith:

God said it.

I believe it.

I do what He said to do.

I don't do what He said

NOT to do

Until we are willing to learn and understand God from a deeper place than our mind, which is limited, we haven't even begun to really know Him.

Anxiety only becomes part of our walk with God when we over-think and complicate the faith that Jesus made so simple.

18 At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

Matthew 18:1-5

²Then Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in the midst of them,

Matthew 18:1–5

³and said, “Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:1–5

⁴Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:1–5

Faith is simple when we don't allow other voices to influence our trust in God's love and leadership.

God's voice is only hard to hear when we doubt our ability to hear it.

Obedience is simple when we don't believe we are wiser than God.
