13 and they raised their voices,
saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

Luke 17:11–19

14 When He saw them, He said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they were going, they were cleansed.

Luke 17:11–19

15 Now one of them, when he saw that he had been healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice,

Luke 17:11–19

16 and he fell on his face at His feet, giving thanks to Him. And he was a Samaritan.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, "Were there not ten cleansed? But the nine—where are they?"

except this foreigner?"*

19 And He said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has made you well."

Thankfulness sets our heart in a place of
worship, rather than
negativity and
complaining.

The more blessed we
are, the greater our
need to remain
grateful.

As our gratitude
decreases our judgment
and bitterness increase,
and we slip into "Older Son syndrome."

29 "But he answered and said to his father, 'Look! For so many years I have been serving you and I have never neglected a command of yours; and yet you have never given me a young goat, so that I might celebrate with my friends;

Luke 15:29

Often, the hardest
blessings to see are the
ones right under our
nose.

5 For He established a testimony
in Jacob And appointed a law in Israel, Which He commanded
our fathers That they should
teach them to their children,

Psalm 78:5–7

6 That the generation to come
might know, even the children
yet to be born, That they may arise and tell them to their children,

Psalm 78:5–7

7 That they should put their confidence in God And not forget the works of God, But
keep His commandments,

Psalm 78:5–7

10 They did not keep the covenant of God And refused to walk in His law;

Psalm 78:10–11

11 They forgot His deeds And
His miracles that He had shown
them.

Psalm 78:10–11

Gratitude is the result of focusing
more on the works of God than on the
works of the devil.

It is easy to keep a
record of wrongs.
Love keeps track of
what is right, and
fans its flames.

This is as true on an individual level as it is on a national one.

WHAT DO YOU THANK GOD FOR ABOUT:

1. YOUR LIFE?
2. YOUR FAMILY?
3. YOUR NATION?
